Greetings!

It is my honor and privilege to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of Mr. Jeremy Houck, minister. I had the distinct pleasure of worshipping with Jeremy from February 2001 – March 2004 at the Atlanta Road Church of Christ, Gainesville, GA, where he served as our minister, and I can attest to his strong skillset and professional expertise.

Jeremy is a devoted husband and father who exemplifies a true love and concern for others. He has a heart for ministry and tirelessly labors with fellow brothers and sisters who struggle with life's challenges and losses. While serving as the minister at Atlanta Road, Jeremy was known for his immediate responses to family members in need, often driving to hospitals or members' homes to lend prayers and support at any given moment. He demonstrated genuine love for others first and foremost and was warmly regarded as a friend and confidant by many.

Jeremy is a dynamic pulpit speaker whom I would easily characterize as "one of the best" in our brotherhood. He has a gift for conveying the word of God in a manner that is meaningful, applicable, and scripturally sound. His sermons are "catchy," timely, and encouraging, and he is a speaker who hooks his listeners early in his lessons and maintains their interest throughout.

During his tenure at Atlanta Road Church of Christ, Jeremy helped to establish ministry teams and fellowship groups within our congregation. Also, because our congregation lacked an eldership at the time, Jeremy was instrumental in providing counsel to the men serving in leadership capacities. Our church thrived, in part, because of Jeremy's leadership and maturity.

I have no doubt but that Jeremy would be an excellent asset to your team, and I whole-heartedly endorse him for any ministerial position you may have. If I can further assist you, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Rodney M. Stephens
